

Students complete a series of mathematics, physics, and chemistry courses at VWU and then choose an engineering field and complete corresponding courses at Old Dominion University. Courses taken at VWU include linear algebra, differential equations, physics, and chemistry. Courses at ODU may include fluid mechanics, thermodynamics, electro-mechanical systems and hydromechanics.