

THE COURSES

Classes at Virginia Wesleyan are small and interactive. Some of the courses within the international studies major include: International Law and Organizations, World Religions, International Political Economy, Micro and Macroeconomics, American Foreign Policy, Globalization and Its Discontents, European Union in World Politics, and International Human Rights. In addition, students are encouraged to pursue foreign language studies as a complement to their coursework.

INTERNSHIPS/UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH

Through the Senior Capstone Experience (SIE), international studies majors will complete 12 hours of either foreign language study, study abroad experience or an internship experience completed locally or abroad. Internships and study abroad allow students to gain supervised experience in applying knowledge from the major in real-world settings and in developing the professional skills, providing students with the opportunity to expand their intellectual and cultural horizons.